

FARINGDON JUNIOR SCHOOL HOME-SCHOOL AGREEMENT

As teachers we will foster good relationships with pupils and parents by:

- treating all pupils and parents with respect
- providing quality teaching through a knowledge of our subjects and continuously striving to make learning an enjoyable activity
- treating all pupils fairly and without prejudice
- helping all parties to get along with each other
- listening to pupils and trying to give them equal attention and opportunities
- treating all pupils as individuals and being aware of their strengths and weaknesses
- praising and rewarding pupils, but when necessary, taking appropriate disciplinary action
- encouraging and motivating all pupils
- providing 3 opportunities for formal meetings to discuss pupil's progress and sending a written report for each child to parents at the end of each academic year

As pupils we will:

- recognize the rights of all pupils to learn in an environment free from intimidation
- listen to our teachers, parents and other adults and treat them with respect
- recognize our right to be supported, so be willing to talk with parents, friends and teachers about our worries
- make the most of our abilities and talents by using our time in school and at home wisely
- be caring, co-operative, honest and avoid hurting each other in any way
- take responsibility for our behaviour
- be punctual
- take responsibility for our personal belongings
- learn to work together, value other people, and help create a caring community

As parents we will:

- treat all children and all school staff with respect
- recognize our right to be listened to and equally our responsibility to listen
- speak to our children and their teachers about our children's education
- ensure that our children attend school regularly and arrive on time
- keep teachers informed of all matters relevant to our children at school
- encourage a positive attitude in our children at school
- help our children to take responsibility for their own behaviour

As Governors we will:

- listen to members of the community, staff, parents and pupils, and endeavour to give them equal opportunity and attention
- provide a framework for good working relationships in school
- provide strong leadership with a consistency of application to all
- encourage an atmosphere of trust and team spirit that promotes a shared positive attitude
- support school staff as they carry out school policies
- set a positive example of behaviour to each other that exemplifies our philosophies
- develop, agree, and share our policy for behaviour and standards with the school community, and ensure a continuous review of its contents
